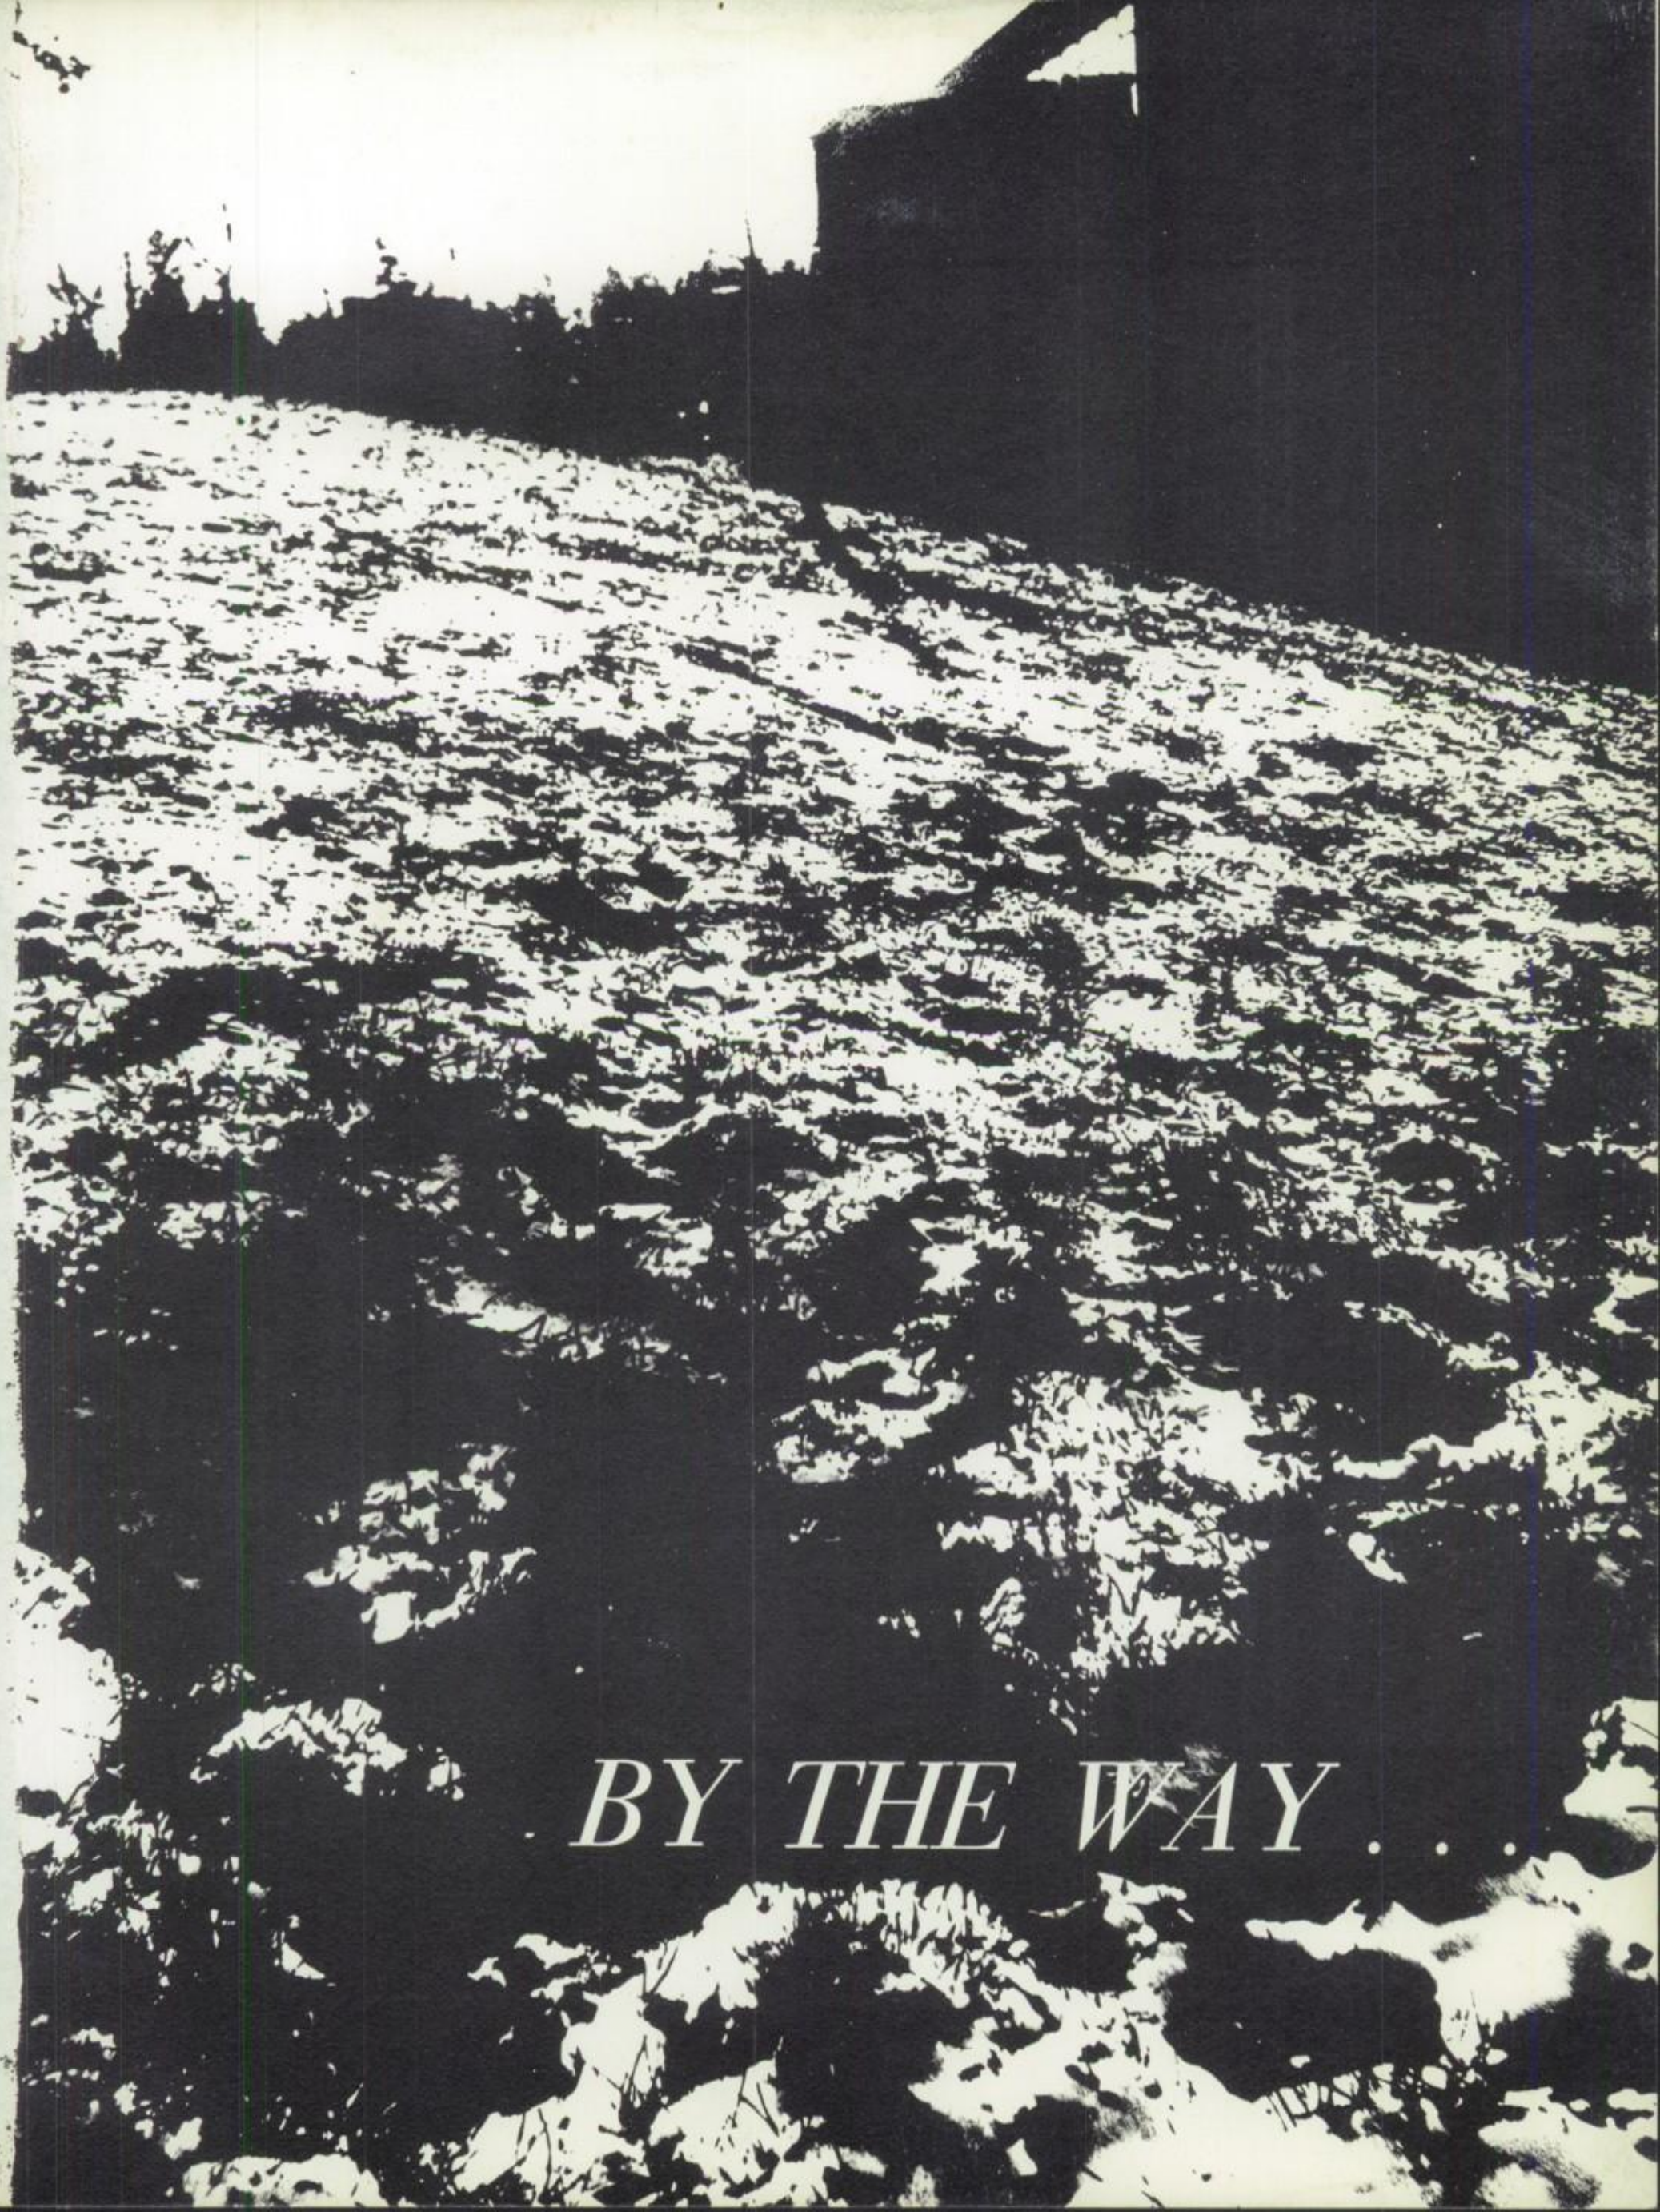
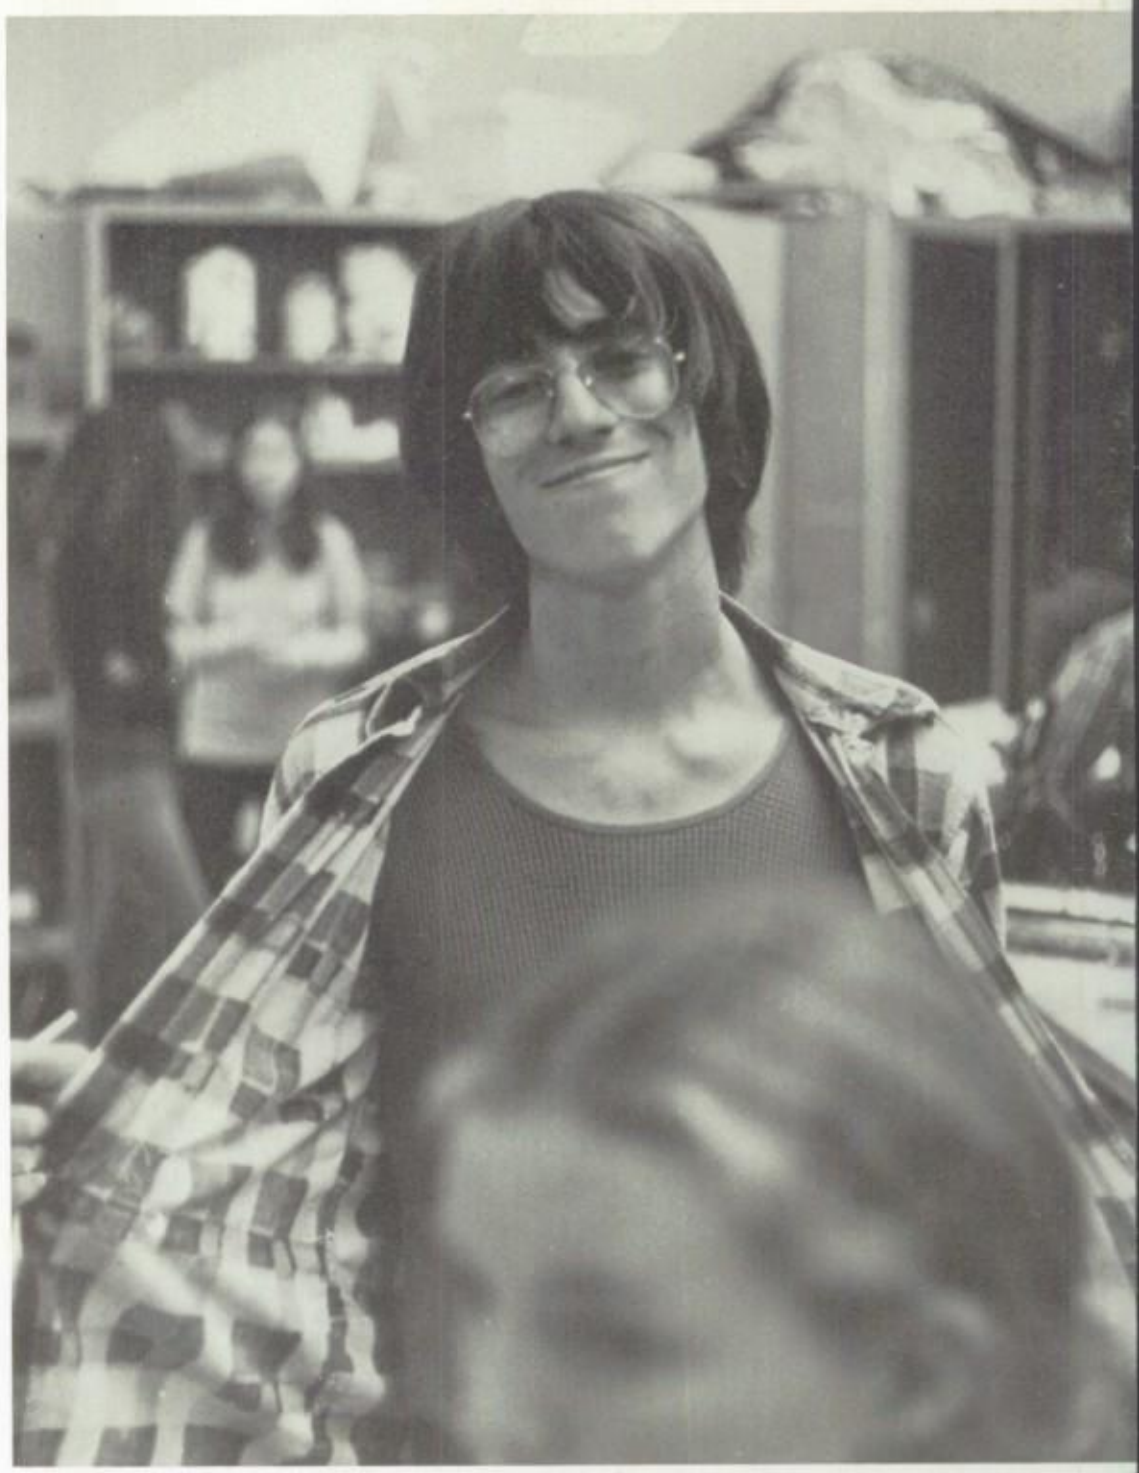
LEE KLOPFER



BY THE WAY . . .



The great ship, the ship of the world
Long time sailing
Mariners, mariners, gather your skills

Jesus and Hitler and Richard the Lion Heart
Three kings and Moses and Queen Cleopatra
The cobbler, the maiden
The mender and the maker
The sickever and the twitcher
And the glad undertaken
The shepherd of the willows
The harper and the archer
All sat down in one boat together
Troubled voyage in calm weather.

Student Government

This year's Student Council explored and dealt with many new areas in school policy.

Student Council people were involved in forming the end-of-the-year activities program, the revised final exam policy, and acquiring free periods for sophomores and juniors.

In addition to this, an all new constitution was written, greatly improving the efficiency of the council.

To you,

I'm discouraged. All I have is a pen and paper, and that's not enough of what I need to be able to tell you what the year was like.

I would need you, looking at my smile. I would need you feeling my satisfaction and happiness. To understand it even better, try to picture how great it is to see yourself "growing," understanding, puzzled, frightened, proud, being filled with happiness, or "down in the dump." Each of you, 71-72 S. H. students, had a lot to do with the whole process. Even those whom I had seen for no more than 5 minutes through smiles, hellos and good byes, left a significant impression.

I can still remember how many things I couldn't understand, like the bells, the way periods were divided, lunch system . . . Later on, I would not only understand those well, but I would also be aware of things that nobody would teach me, they would depend on my attention; I learned watching, observing, and listening. Such as, the way teachers wouldn't be mad about some delayed work once in awhile, or the nicest way to be excused for your laziness and so forth. The tricks, you know.

We practically learn "how to be again," for different customs and people expect different things from you; therefore it's hard to play successfully the new roles.

But, the best of all is the feeling that comes slowly somehow, when you realize "you belong." Each new word I learned was important, but believe it or not, my favorite ones were those I could really feel I was communicating easier, and fully expressing what I wanted to say: "dig it, baby?"; "oh! tough man!"; "what a drag!"; "right on!" Oh! those were my best: Just because the less different my language would become, the closer the relationships would get too; especially among the young people. The thoughts were also getting closer to less differences. I wouldn't call it "brainwashing," I'd call it "understanding" or "getting along."

The letter won't mean too much for everybody, but there's just a message I wish most of you will get: I can't imagine how it would have been without your kindness, your help, and your attention.

Helena Guimares, Brazil

The teachers, the councelors, the principal, and each one of you were responsible, and I thank you all. I need a special "thanks" to my sister Kassie, who so patiently taught me a lot, and from whom I always had support.

Brazil and I will be waiting for you all.

Be happy,

Helena Guimarães

Adria Lindt, Germany

A picture of my year with you.

When you'd ask me to paint a picture of the year I spent at this high school it would look like this: A path through a green meadow, winding up a hill. Above all the vast sky with the smiling sun.

No, the sky wouldn't be perfectly blue: there would be also a couple of clouds rushing across. Otherwise I would lead astray you and myself with illusions.

Sometimes I did get frustrated because my school work didn't leave me all the time I would have liked to make more good friends and spend more time just having fun together. Then I was mad at myself for taking my work so seriously, maybe too seriously. But it's hard to quit that bad habit when there is a little troll in you who loves to work on interesting things and learn all about them.

Still, I'm glad to have that little troll inside of me. For isn't it the very same troll who made me want to come to this school? Through it I experienced a lot of happy hours, bright flowers in the meadow. I made friends walking up the path beside me.

Another great gain I could draw from our school was the possibility to choose a couple of courses. I found out much more about myself, what I want and will do, in one year. The most important things to me, however, were the classroom discussions, and talks with you, and the time I spent together with some of you in Folksong Club, French Club and Constitution Committee. On these occasions I could get to know your ways of thinking and doing things, which brought me a great deal of things that you can't learn just from books.

Maybe my experiences haven't brought me to the top of the hill, but they have brought me a lot closer to it than I was before I came. So when by the end of the year you'll ask me "What has this year given to you?"; I'll answer: "It is giving! And it will be giving forever!" Therefore I want to thank all of you.

Love,

Adria

With only four returning starters, no one expected the Summit Football Team to be as powerful as it turned out to be. What the team did have was the pride, spirit, and the desire to win. And after all—it was a SUMMIT football team. Without the really outstanding personnel that Summit has had in the past, the Hilltoppers marched to a 7-1-1 record and their 4th consecutive Suburban Conference Championship. It was the team effort and spirit that brought them there.

In the process, Co-Captain Duggie Gwathney set a career rushing record of 1,944 yards and also a season mark of 810 yards. All-Conference QB Mike Reid threw for 9 TD's and was Most Improved. Co-Captain Jeff Keating led the defense and was voted All-Conference along with Tom Wiebe, Larry "Faceguard" O'Mahoney, and Dave Wilson—who ate up the opposition at cornerback. With eight men returning on defense and six for the Vultures—these including "Dollar" Bill George, Mongrel of the Year Mike Jemison, Dennis Holman, and Willie Wilson—the Summit tradition of winning football should be carried on.

CROSS COUNTRY '71

Suburban Conference Champs

Running to a 14-2 record and the Suburban Conference Championship, the Summit Cross Country team sported their best season ever. A powerful New Providence team pinned the harriers with their only two defeats of the season, but Summit came back in the Suburban Conference Meet. Led by Brad Williams, Steve Nix, and Joe Clabby they pulled through to win it, eking out a victory by just 4 points.

With the likes of Dennis Clabby and Mark McMinimy coming up, Coach Tom Washburn has something to look forward to—maybe a few more fans.

First: Anthony Burges, Zach White, Brad Williams, Paul Harris, Mark Cotter, Chuck Herman, Joe Clabby. Second: Mark McMinimy, Gary O'Shea, Richard Conover, Pete Raaer, Orlando Vasquez. Third: Will Brunson, Dennis Clabby, Bob Thames, Bill Fuess, Andris Klavins, Steve Nix, Coach Washburn.

SOCCER 1971

Taking more shots than perhaps all their opponents put together, the Hilltoppers just couldn't seem to get the ball in the net, winding up with a 6-6-3 record . . . missing the state tournament by a loss to Madison. Sophomore Baker did well in goals, Dick Stockbridge was a standout on defense, and co-captain Pat Brady led the offense.

Tom Daily

This year's local fish ended their season in style and finesse with a record of 11-3. As it happened last year, this hard working group of what is most probably the finest collection of athletes in the school, lost to only two teams. Co-captains John Closs and Tom Daily, with fellow senior Fred Anderson led the way, mopping up everyone except Westfield and Morristown who outstroked Summit to their only losses. "Seens" (Dave Sehnert) broke the breaststroke record, Steve Korbel, the 50 freestyle, and following Steve Whiteley's example, John Closs cruised to shatter the 100 butterfly record at least a dozen times. The team finished second in the county behind Westfield and second in the state behind Moorestown.

GIRLS' VARSITY SWIMMING 1971-72

Our girls did whiz and we found out
What "happiness" is.

Breast, Back, and Free
There's no end to the feats of the one, the only Kathi Keats.

From Diving to Swimming our hearts did glow with pride for our own little Annie O.

Why are babies so flimsy?
Ask Leslie, she knows!
And in the freestyle,
She really goes!

And who was that quick little kid in the backstroke?
It's Carol, and next year she'll be back folks!!

A swimmer with a smile
that's almost as quick,
as she is herself,
that's Julie Fitzpatrick.

Now this kid has style in the 200 free It's Lisa; of course and She's something to see.

Another freestyler who's really a star is Melissa without her we'd never go far.

Across the pool her butterfly zooms of course,
it's none other than Cindy Dooms!

Our state record champion, who swims on her back,
She's Micki our hero,
there's nothing she lacks.

And there with his mouth hanging open and wide Is Greeny
Just about bursting with pride.

Despite opposition to their formation, Summit High's mermaids had a fantastic first year season, going to the states to swim off with the first place trophy while establishing three new records there. (Micki Heddy—50 back, Annie O.—diving, and the 200 free relay of Dooman, Minshall, Ogorzaly and Keating.) They truly came on like a star-burst. But, who will go to practice each morning to keep up the teams hard working image next year, once Fitz, Dinty and Dooms are gone?

* Suburban Conference Meets

Even with a few major disappointments the Summit grapplers managed to end up with a fairly good 7-6 record and a few surprises. With Bullet, Commie, Wonder Boy, Champ, and Wild Joe Pier leading the team with at least 10 wins apiece, it seemed the Toppers always came close but never close enough, suffering two close defeats at the hands of Madison and New Providence. 178-pounder Mike Jemison pulled the surprise of the year. Running away with the district championship, he wound up 3rd in the regionals . . . the first junior ever to win districts from Summit.

This season the Hilltoppers added another Suburban Conference Championship banner to decorate our gym. As the hoopsters swept to a 14-0 conference record, no opponent came within 13 points. An opening season loss to St. Mary's and a tough loss to Newark Central in the States were the only defeats to mar Summit's record. Tork, Paytas, Hudgins, Leisher, and Wilson gave Coach Ed Lyons, new to Summit but in his 21st year of coaching, an excellent season.

They are playing a game. They are playing at not playing a game. If I show them I see they are, I shall break the rules and they will punish me. I must play their game, of not seeing I see the game.

—from "Knots"
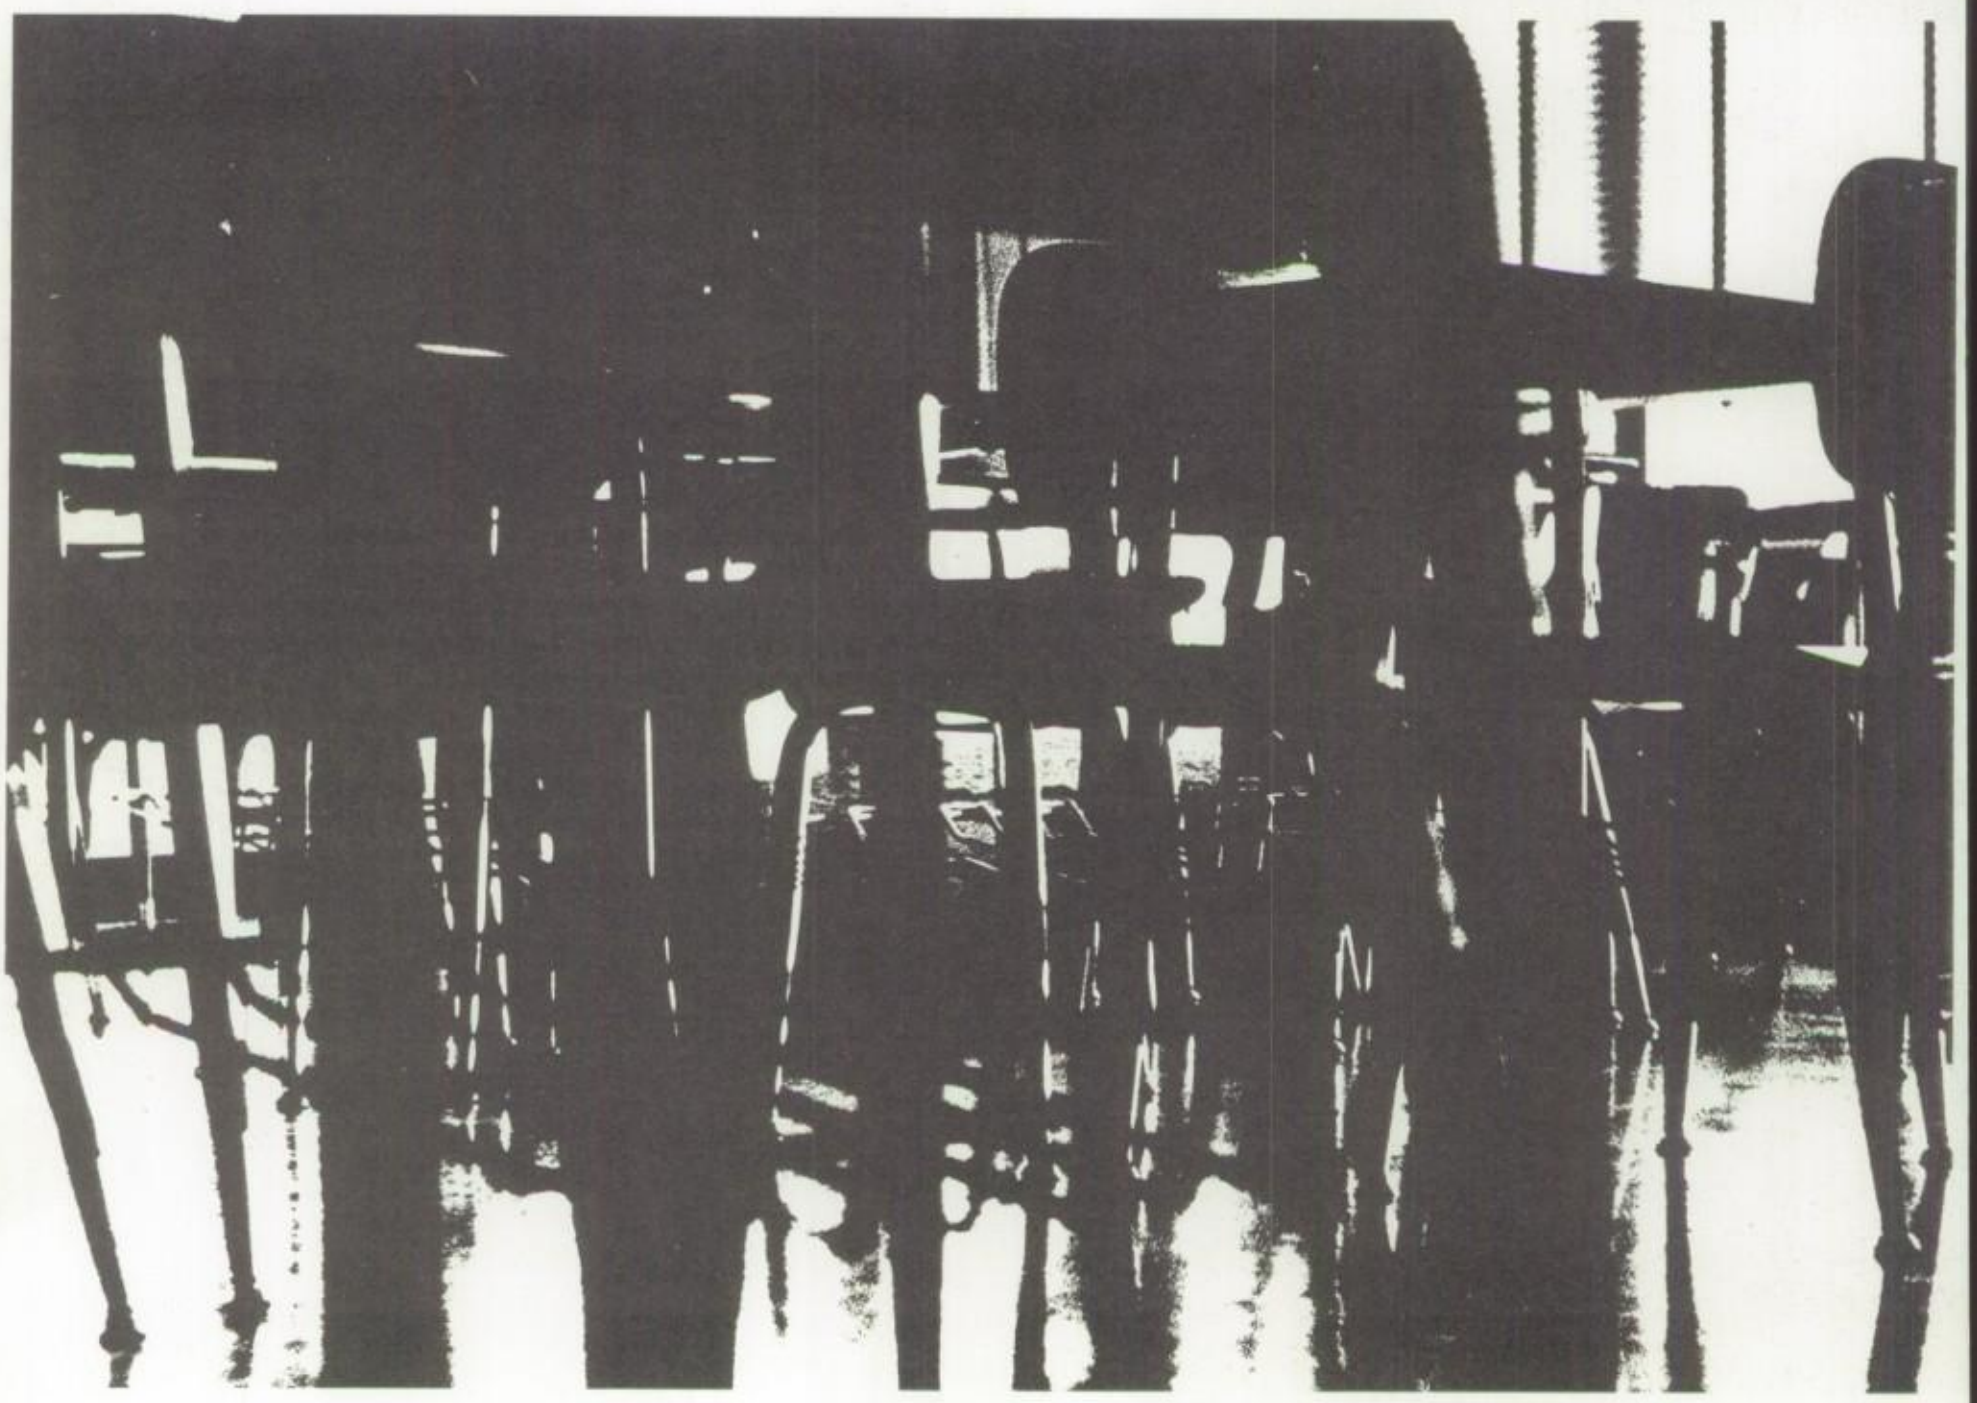
R. D. Laing



In my dream I saw Siddhartha being chased by Cheyenne Indians led by Little Big Man. Moses was leading a Gideon battle with trumpets and lambs. And on the Dead Sea scrolls the truth about my next art assignment was written. My bassoon was playing volleyball rules for the next day's gym test, while the flower I try to grow bloomed out of Peter Berger's sociological thoughts, but the flowers were the Pentagon Papers. You have guessed it—I am a student!

—Inger Nielsen

There is something I don't know that I am supposed to know.
I don't know what it is I don't know,
and yet am supposed to know,
and I feel I look stupid
if I seem both not to know it and not know what it is I don't know.
Therefore I pretend I know it.
This is nerve-racking
since I don't know what I must pretend to know.
Therefore I pretend to know everything.

—from "Knots"

Amid trying extremities, lay virtual non-existence
as has been witnessed here Yet, it may be said that not all has been lost to these deadening blank walls
and these animated, controlled peoples
For if one may but face ones own capacity for imitation one may open to find, the possibility of happiness
in this place at times, if one would dare to let it invade.

I just wish you'd give me a few more moments to be alone with myself. I find myself running so fast I don't have the energy to grow, inside. I watch weeks slip through my fingers, but don't feel anything. I see the day bloom, but can't touch its petals. I'm just moving so fast I'm afraid to reach out, for fear I'll get caught on something or someone.

TRICIA QUINN

Hide not your talents;
For use they were made!
What good is a sundial
When standing in the shade?

JANIE RACHLIN

The world could come together as one
If everybody under the sun
Would add some music to their day.

PATTI-JILL RAJOPPI

Life Begins When You Begin to Love.

MARIANNE REITER

i shall play a song for you and if i cannot play i shall sing a tune for you and if i cannot sing i shall dance for you and if i cannot dance then i shall only be for you Rejoicing

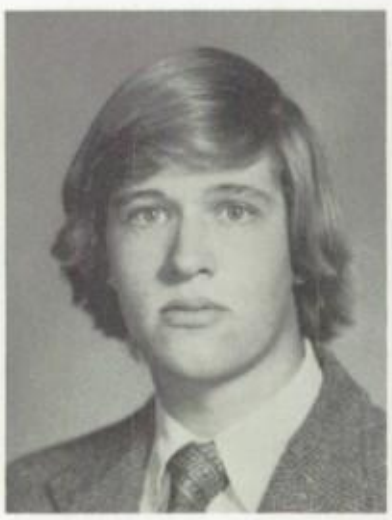
BETSY REYNOLDS

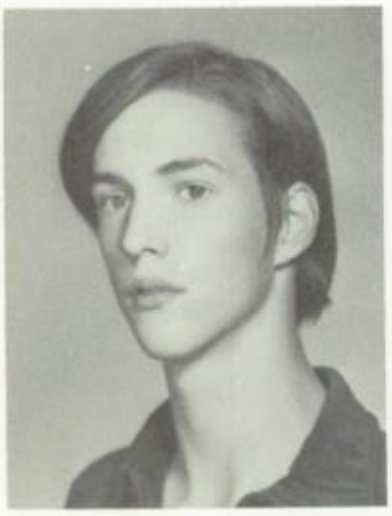
CATHY RICE

In the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul. With all its sham, drudgery, and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Strive to be happy.



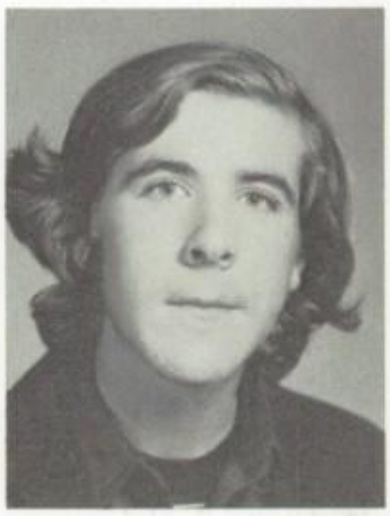
GARRISON R. RICE, JR.

Nature is not harmony, at best it is a precarious balance.

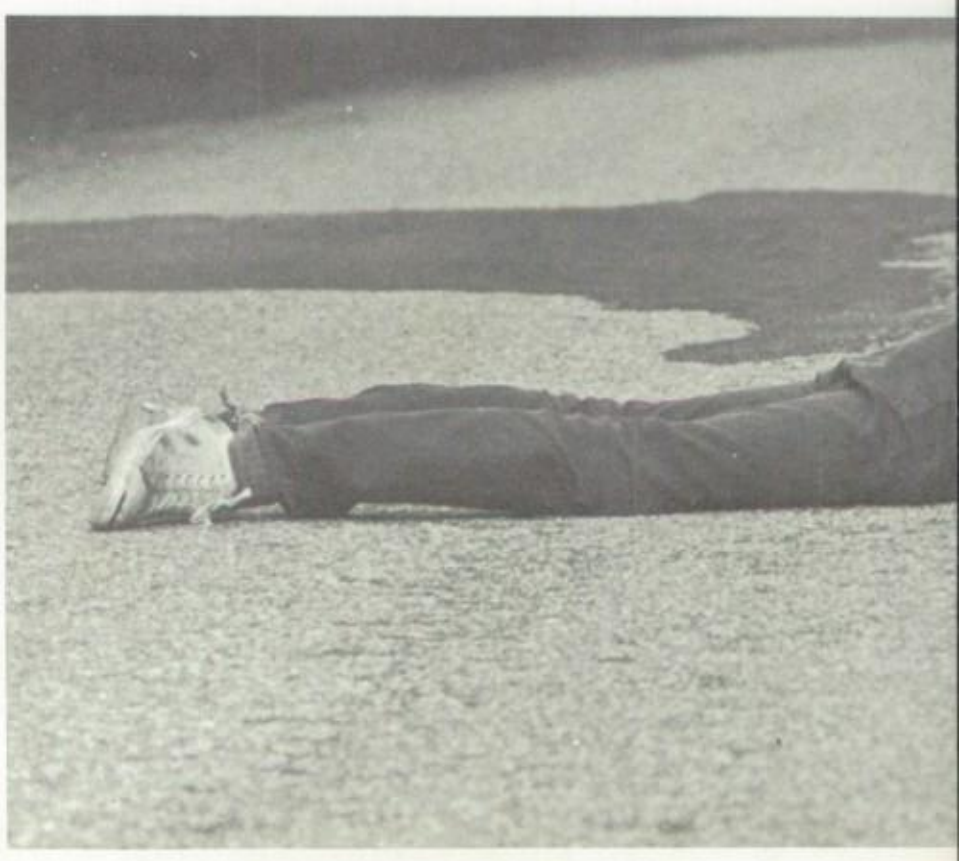


AL RODE

The format in this school of mandatory classes has to be changed as so many people, including mySELF, ARE UNABLE to conform to this method of "education."



PETE ROLLER

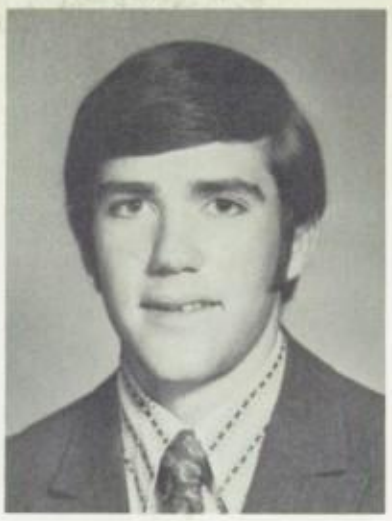


PHIL RAYMOND

It is completely unimportant. That is why it is so interesting.

DIANA REA

no wall can stoy the coming of love, and no clock can turn it back.



MIKE REID

Success is to be measured not so much by the position that one has reached in life as by the obstacles which he has overcome while trying to succeed.

JANET RILEY

To exist is good; to live is better;
But to live together is best.

BONITA RIGGINS

JILL ROBINSON

If you have built castles in the air, your work need not be lost; that is where they should be. Now put foundations under them.

MILLIE ROBINSON
